25X1 1. Mr. Gates' confirmation hearings have been much in the news this week. [] offered his view that Mr. Gates did well under very difficult questioning. The hearings yielded a "fringe benefit" in that Agency officials were afforded the opportunity to gain insight on the attitudes and views of the congressional committee members, including several newly appointed members, who have cognizance over intelligence 25X1 matters. []

25X1 2. [] attended a recent gathering of DCI Security Staff members and spouses - a well deserved social break from their usually hectic and demanding schedule. Mr. Gates took time to attend and, while there, presented the Certificate of 25X1 Distinction to [] for his actions in saving the life of Mrs. Casey when food became lodged in her throat at a recent 25X1 function. []

25X1 3. Also noted by [] were several letters received in recent weeks from Agency officials commending the actions of 25X1 Office of Security employees: [] was cited by the Comptroller for his work on the 1988-89 budget submission; 25X1 [] were cited for their 25X1 polvaranh work in support of the []; and 25X1 [] received kudos for an exceptional operational polygraph. []

25X1 4. The European Overseas Security Group will be holding a conference in March. Plans call for a variety of topics to be discussed with participation by individuals from several operational and administrative elements. []

25X1 5. CIA's Office of General Counsel has petitioned the Supreme Court in the "John Doe" case. The issue in this case is whether the decision of the DCI to discharge a CIA employee is judicially reviewable under the Administrative Procedure Act. []

25X1 6. Office of Security and O/Comptroller representatives met recently with officials of the General Services Administration and the Office of Management and Budget to resolve the problem of [] "lost" positions. The positions were to have been transferred to CIA from GSA with the establishment of the Security Protective Service but were never received. We have been assured that we will receive these positions. []

25X1 8. [] advised that the Applicant Processing Center, a concept much talked about in recent years, was the topic of a recent meeting among DD/PS, AO/OS, and Office of Logistics personnel. OS needs were discussed, and it appears that the Center concept is beginning to crystallize. []

25X1 9. [] noted that the Lonetree espionage case has generated a tremendous amount of work [] The wide ranging access of the former USMC Security Guard poses great problems in terms of identifying and neutralizing potential physical and technical compromises. []

25X1 10. [] a friend of long-standing to many in OS, and currently Director of the Office of Information Services, will retire effective 1 March. Concurrently, OIS will be abolished. Its functions will be divided among O/DDA and OIT. The Regulatory Policy, Information and Privacy, and Classification Review Divisions will move to O/DDA, and the Information Resources Management Division will move to the Office of Information Technology. []

25X1 11. [] is at Fairfax Hospital following a heart attack last week. We are glad to hear he is doing well and may be allowed to go home next week. []

1. OS Cited for Exemplary Performance During Snow Emergency

OS has been the recipient of numerous kudos from Agency officials, including the A/DCI & DDA, resulting from the OS performance during the recent snow emergency. [] stated that the spirit and effort displayed by the entire office during this chaotic period was impressive, and in particular, commended the actions of the SPS, SDO, Escort Section and the OS Logistics Staff. []

3. Transfer of SPO Positions Completed

[] positions have been transferred from GSA to the Security Protective Service (SPS), representing completion of the original transfer agreement. This transfer brings the current authorized staffing level to [] SPS positions. Replacement of GSA guards at Agency out-buildings continues, with full-time assumption of protective duties by SPO personnel expected between July and December 1987. []
